If such warehouseman has applied for licenses to conduct two or more warehouses in the same State, the assets applicable to all of which shall be subject to the liabilities of each, and shall desire to give a single bond meeting the requirements of the act and these regulations for said warehouses, such warehouses shall be deemed to be one warehouse for the purposes of the bond required under this regulation. In the discretion of the Secretary, a properly executed instrument in form approved by him, amending, extending, or continuing in force and effect the obligations of a valid bond previously filed by the warehouseman and otherwise complying with the act and these regulations may be filed in lieu of a new bond.

SEC. 4. Whenever a continuous form of license has been issued, such license shall not be effective beyond one year from its effective date unless the warehouseman shall have filed a new bond in the required amount with, and such bond shall have been approved by, the Secretary prior to the date on which that license would have expired had it been issued for but one year, subject to the provisions of section 3 of this regulation.

Par. 6. If a warehouseman issues a receipt under the act omitting any information not required to be stated, for which a blank space is provided in the form of the receipt, a line shall be drawn through such space to show that such omission has been made by the warehouseman.

SEC. 2. Either actual copies or skeleton copies of all receipts shall be made, and all such copies, except those issued in lieu of the original, in case of lost or destroyed receipts, shall, if there be no statute of the United States or law of a State providing otherwise, have clearly and conspicuously printed or stamped thereon the words "Copy—Not negotiable."

SEC. 3. Paragraph 1. In the case of a lost or destroyed receipt, if there be no statute of the United States or law of a State applicable thereto, a new receipt upon the same terms, subject to the same conditions, and bearing on its face the number and the date of the receipt in lieu of which it is issued and a plain and conspicuous statement that it is a duplicate issued in lieu of a lost or destroyed receipt, may be issued upon compliance with the conditions set out in paragraph 2 of this section.

Par. 2. Before issuing such duplicate receipt the warehouseman shall require the depositor or other person applying therefor to make and file with the warehouseman (a) an affidavit showing that he is lawfully entitled to the possession of the original receipt, that he has not negotiated or assigned it, how the original receipt was lost or destroyed, and, if lost, that diligent effort has been made to find the receipt without success, and (b) a bond in amount double the value, at the time the bond is given, of the cold-pack fruit represented by the lost or destroyed receipt. Warehouseman enjoined from compelling omission of grade on receipt.

SEC. 8. No warehouseman shall, directly or indirectly, by any means whatever, compel or attempt to compel the depositor of any cold-pack fruit, stored in his licensed warehouse, to request the issuance of a receipt omitting the statement of grade.

Regulation 5. Duties of Licensed Warehousemen

Product must be inspected by licensed inspector before storage.

SECTION 1. No licensed warehouseman shall receive cold-pack fruit in his licensed warehouse for storage unless a licensed inspector has examined it and found it to be in proper condition and the warehouseman deems it suitable for storage; provided that under no condition shall fruit be accepted which, according to the certificate issued by the licensed inspector at the packing plant, was packed more than 12 hours prior to the fruit reaching the sharp room of the warehouseman. Before accepting any lot of fruit offered for storage the warehouseman shall receive under seal a copy of the certificate issued by the inspector who inspected the fruit at the packing plant. Under no circumstances shall any container or any cold-pack fruit be accepted for storage under the act and these regulations unless the containers and the fruit both are in conformity with these regulations. If the cold-pack fruit when offered for storage is in cans, the warehouseman shall refuse to accept for storage all swells, leakers, rusty cans, or any cold-pack fruit known to be in violation of either State or Federal food and drug laws.

SEC. 2. Paragraph 1. Each warehouseman, when so requested in writing by the depositor or the lawful holder of the receipt for cold-pack fruit, shall, to the extent to which in the exercise of due diligence he is able to procure such insurance, keep such cold-pack fruit while in his custody insured in his own name, or arrange for its insurance otherwise, to the extent so requested, against loss or damage by fire, lightning, and/or tornado. Such insurance shall be covered by lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do such business, and subject to service of process in suits brought in the State where the warehouse is located. If the warehouseman is unable to procure such insurance to the extent requested, he shall orally or by telegraph, or by telephone immediately notify the person making the request. When insurance is not carried in the warehouseman's name, the receipt shall show that the cold-pack fruit is not insured by him. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a warehouseman from adopting a rule that he will insure all cold-pack fruit against loss by fire, lightning, tornado, or breakdowns of machinery and equipment.

Warehouseman to insure under certain conditions.

Par. 2. Each warehouseman shall keep exposed conspicuously in the place prescribed by regulation 2, section 4, and at such other place as the chief of the bureau, or his representative, may from time to time designate, a notice stating briefly the conditions under which cold-pack fruit will be insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning, and/or tornado.

If at any time a warehouseman shall handle cold-pack fruit other than for storage, or shall handle or store any other commodity, he shall so protect the same and otherwise exercise such care with respect to them as not to endanger the cold-pack fruit in his custody as a licensed warehouseman, or impair his ability to meet his obligations and perform his duties under the act and these regulations. If the warehouseman shall store commodities other than those for which he is licensed, a nonlicensed receipt shall be issued. Under no circumstances shall any commodities for the storage of which the warehouseman is not licensed be stored if the storage of such commodities might adversely affect the commercial value of or impair the insurance on cold-pack fruit covered by licensed receipts.

Condition under which storage of nonlicensed products permissible.

SEC. 6. Each warehouseman shall provide a metal fireproof safe, a fireproof vault, or a fireproof compartment in which he shall keep, when not in actual use, all records, books, and papers pertaining to the warehouse, including his current receipt book, copies of receipts issued, and canceled receipts, except that with the written consent of the chief of the bureau, or his representative, upon a showing by such warehouseman that it is not practicable to provide such fireproof safe, vault, or compartment, he may keep such records, books, and papers in some other place of safety approved by the chief of the bureau or his representative. If several deliveries to the warehouse are made at daily or other intervals of time, the lot number given to the first delivery of a depositor shall be given to each delivery until the lot has been completed, provided subsequent deliveries to the warehouse are all piled with the first lot.
